

HOUSE RESOLUTION 187
By Head

A RESOLUTION to commend Jenny Taylor for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Jenny Taylor is one such individual who has distinguished herself in her role as a legislative intern for Chairman James Thomas Head, Vice-Chairman Craig Fitzhugh, Secretary Harry Tindell, and the entire House Finance, Ways and Means Committee; her work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators she assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a student at Austin Peay State University, where she is highly regarded by her peers, Ms. Taylor has achieved academic success while majoring in Political Science and participating in numerous extracurricular activities; a recipient of the prestigious George O. Albright Scholarship, she has thus far earned a remarkable grade point average of 3.5, and she is on course to graduate in May of 2004; and

WHEREAS, the daughter of Bo and Susan Taylor, both accomplished attorneys, and the sister of Abby, she is a native of Springfield; a naturally curious, inquisitive, and hard-working young woman, she plans to follow in the footsteps of her proud parents in the practice of Criminal Law, and is currently studying very hard for the LSAT; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize herself with the characteristics and complexity of Tennessee state government and to further her studies, Ms. Taylor brought her many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2003 session of the One Hundred Third General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, she has taken the stress of working for the House Finance, Ways and Means Committee with a grain of salt, and she will be surely missed by all of the committee's members and staff; and

WHEREAS, in addition, Ms. Taylor has developed impressive skills in placing seals and ribbons on certificates, to the great admiration of many people; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2003 legislative session, she has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, regarded as a stellar debater, other interns have learned not to challenge her, else they be soundly defeated; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Taylor prefers plastic cutlery to silverware, and she has always looked forward to AARP Wednesdays; and

WHEREAS, Jenny Taylor has performed her many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum, and she should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Jenny Taylor for outstanding service as an intern for Chairman Tommy Head, Vice-Chairman Craig Fitzhugh, Secretary Harry Tindell, and the entire House Finance, Ways and Means Committee and extend to her our best wishes for every future success.
